

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air Stolen Honor days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. As a free media outlet they need to be expected to show information on both sides of the political spectrum. At the very least I would expect that a pro-Kerry story be shown as well to show both sides. This decision is clearly politically motivated and it is undemocratic for one media group to have such power.

Thank you.